See the world through Rabin's own eyes. The new documentary film Filmed by Yitzhak unreels the 8 MM home movies Rabin, an avid amateur filmmaker, took in the 1960s and 1970s. Experience public and private moments — the Queen of England riding her horses, the game parks of Africa, the streets of Teheran, and Rabin's private life with family and friends—all through Rabin's personal lens. (Directed by Limor Pinhasov, Israel, 2009, 50 min, Hebrew w/ English subtitles)

"Unfolding before us is a personal history that's both ordinary and extraordinary... We constantly look for the man who filmed them and are repeatedly reminded that he is no longer there." – Jerusalem Post
