LIBRARY/ CLASSROOM USE LICENSE AGREEMENT

Institutional purchase DOES NOT include public performance rights. To screen a film outside of the classroom, even when no admission fee is charged, you must contact NCJF to obtain a public performance license. A screening fee will likely apply.

Synchronous (live) or asynchronous streaming (multiple user, video-on-demand) is also prohibited. Contact NCJF for Digital Site Licensing options.

Please be advised that your purchase of a DVD and/or Blu-ray is made subject to the following conditions:

1. "Purchase" constitutes lease for the life of the DVD and/or Blu-ray.
2. The DVD and/or Blu-ray will not be altered or copied in any manner whatsoever. The DVD and/or Blu-ray is protected under United States Copyright Code.
3. The DVD and/or Blu-ray is to be used only for educational use by the Customer.
4. The DVD and/or Blu-ray will not be shown to the public, theatrically, commercially, or for a profit. Screenings will not be advertised to the public.
5. The DVD and/or Blu-ray will not be uploaded in any manner onto web servers, web hosts, or video-hosting websites.
6. The DVD and/or Blu-ray will not be rented, loaned for a fee, leased, or sub-leased to others.
7. The DVD and/or Blu-ray will not be broadcast or televised.
8. The Customer will not negotiate any transaction concerning the DVD and/or Blu-ray without specific written authorization from The National Center for Jewish Film.

Thank you for your cooperation and for supporting the work of independent filmmakers.
