A drama of loyalty, love, and deceit spanning three generations and three languages. The Hakim triplets were born to a wealthy Egyptian-Jewish family in 1942. Sixty years later—after husbands and children, careers and love affairs—the sisters are living together again, in Israel. Moving between present and past, a suspenseful and poignant tale reveals the sisters' unshakable bond—and a long-hidden secret. Rose gets it right when she confesses: we were better sisters than we were mothers. www.3mothers.co.il
